

PRESERVED COACHING STOCK OF BRITISH RAILWAYS

AMENDMENT SHEET NUMBER 171

April-July2025

MYSTERIOUS CARRIAGES!!!

Railway Retreats, Northiam, East Sussex – in Amendment Sheet 170 it was mentioned that in all probability the two Southern Railway design PMVs in use at Northiam as holiday accommodation were 1851 and 2188 and that in all probability these had left the Mid-Hants Railway in May 1988. May 1988 should of course have read May 2018. The date of the photograph of what looks to be 2188 arriving at Northiam should also have read May 2018.

It has now been established that Southern Railway design PMV 1333, previously located at the Battlefield Railway, was offered for sale from a site in Cranbrook, Kent in 2023. Cranbrook is not far from Sandhurst so it might be the same location that appears to have a connection with Railway Retreats Northiam. Information about where precisely the Cranbrook / Sandhurst sites are / where would be greatly appreciated, as would any information about the current whereabouts of 1333.
